

Greetings

December 1974

During this season of giving may we suggest that you make a gift to yourself?

When you establish your personal Fund in the Oklahoma City Community Foundation, your contribution is not given, spent, and then forgotten. Your gift will earn income that will benefit the charitable, educational, health, and cultural institutions of Oklahoma City for many years to come - perhaps forever.

Your gift to OCCF is tax deductible; and you will have the pleasure of knowing that with your personal Fund, you have joined a proud and growing family of Oklahoma City donors.
