OKLAHOMA CITY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
ANNUAL REPORT 1978-79

This annual report is dedicated to four men who have served the Oklahoma City Community Foundation for ten years on its Board of Trustees. Through their imagination and leadership, the Foundation has grown from an idea into an important philanthropic force for good in the life of Oklahoma City.

FOUR MEN WHO CARE:
JOHN E. KIRKPATRICK, FOUNDER
SYLVAN N. GOLDMAN
DEAN A. MCGEE
J. B. SAUNDERS

The Annual Report of the Oklahoma City Community Foundation is not merely a report of the Foundation's yearly grant-making activity. It is just as much a record of individual generosity toward a large and complex metropolitan community—a record of how people cared about Oklahoma City in 1978.

The Community Foundation was established in our city in 1969 by public-minded philanthropists looking for a way to insure the integrity of their giving, maximize their tax advantages, and guarantee that the highest percentage of their charitable dollar would be available for the community. It now has more than 600 donors, and assets of near $5,000,000 in 175 Individual Funds. In 1978, 61 agencies shared $185,745 in earned income from Foundation trust funds. More than 300 such community foundations are active in the United States, serving as bridges between the donors of charitable funds and the seekers of those funds.

But the Oklahoma City Community Foundation has grown in other ways besides statistics; the donors and leaders of the Foundation have grown as well in their understanding of the problems and possibilities of the community they serve. This Annual Report is a record of how the Community Foundation was used as an instrument for solving those problems and encouraging those possibilities in 1978. It is a record of who cared.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This is my last year as an OCCF Trustee. When I was a little boy, my grandfather and I were going down a country road near Yukon in a horsedrawn buggy. He had been telling me of the Run of '89. I still remember his eyes as he looked out onto the fields and said, "It seems like only yesterday—it's all so beautiful!"

For five years we studied the concept of a Community Foundation and saved money to get it started. We were guided by experiences throughout the country and especially those of the Cleveland Foundation and the New York City Community Trust whose advice and models we followed closely.

This applied to our basic organization, with a Board of Trustees chosen from diverse sources, and a Fiscal Committee representing the six trustee banks, with the two entities responsible and responsive to one another. The Board of Trustees distributes only what the Fiscal Committee earns, unless otherwise stipulated by a donor, and the Board of Trustees reviews the work of the Fiscal Committee and determines the distributions.

We sought a broad base of support from many donors rather than maintaining a few large funds. Now we have more than 600 donors, with 175 Individual Funds. We have operated with complete financial disclosure and integrity, meticulously accounting for the funds and grants, in our distribution policies, we have sought to cover a wide spectrum of agencies.

Along with the establishment of funds to support specific agencies, we have sought to keep the balance in favor of unrestricted funds that could be used more flexibly to support undesignated agencies with special needs as well as those designated specifically by donors.

The principles upon which the Community Foundation originally started have proved sound. They encouraged growth, they have allowed us to develop conservatively to maintain our objectives with integrity and management ability to invite and encourage further trust expressed through gifts and especially through bequests.

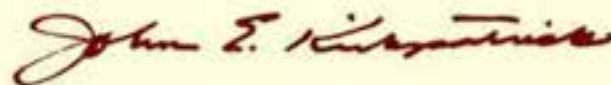

Future donors of such funds, as well as those who have already established funds, should feel secure in the advantages of an ongoing contribution to appropriate agencies in our community. We are assured the continuing surveillance of ongoing excellence in the Board of Trustees and the Fiscal Committee that is guaranteed by the system of their selection. Our organization and our operational policies have proved successful for our models, the Cleveland Foundation and the New York City Community Trust, and the Oklahoma City Community Foundation has grown to a size where it can now serve our city as effectively as the Community Foundations upon which it was modeled are serving theirs.

We are especially grateful to Mr. Don Ellison who has guided us through the pitfalls of laws and regulations. In doing this he has become an authority on foundations. He has never charged for these valuable services.

The credibility of the Oklahoma City Community Foundation was substantiated by the early establishment of Individual Funds by our outstanding community leaders such as Stanley Draper, E.K. Gaylord, Dean A. McGee, Don Kennedy, and others.

On our tenth anniversary we have grown quite satisfactorily as to our capital funds, our acceptance in the community, and our contributions to diverse elements of our city. This growth should continue at an accelerated rate.

As we enter our tenth year of the Oklahoma City Community Foundation, I can echo my grandfather with the same look in my eyes, "it seems like only yesterday, it's all so beautiful!"

John E. Kirkpatrick
President

THE FISCAL BOARD

Six Oklahoma City banks have adopted Trust Agreements with the Community Foundation, and are authorized to receive its funds in trust. The investment program of each individual Fund is handled by that fund's particular bank, as chosen by the donor. The income, and portions of the principal when so authorized, are turned over to the Foundation at the end of the fiscal year for distribution to charitable beneficiaries.

The Fiscal Board's responsibilities are to assure unity of purpose among the trustee banks, to fulfill the terms of the trusts, and to provide for the growth of the Foundation.

GEORGE SHIRK

NEW INDIVIDUAL FUNDS IN THE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

GEORGE SHIRK FUND

This fund results from a bequest by Mr. Shirk, leaving the remainder of his estate to the Community Foundation after making specific bequests. Earnings from this fund will benefit Oklahoma City University, Oklahoma Heritage Association, Oklahoma City Council of Camp Fire Girls, The Salvation Army, and Mercy Hospital, as specified by Mr. Shirk.

George Shirk was one of the outstanding leaders of Oklahoma: a lawyer, pre-eminent historian, soldier, and public servant, saving Oklahoma City as mayor during a critical time in its history. The Community Foundation is proud of his trust and will carefully honor his requests and oversee the distributions in memory of this splendid citizen of Oklahoma.

EARL Q. & LUCILE R. GRAY

EARL Q. & LUCILE R. GRAY

Nancy (Mrs. John) Cheek began this fund in the Community Foundation in December to honor her parents during their lifetimes. Mr. Gray has since died. Earnings will encourage research in Parkinson's Disease and arthritis.

Mr. Gray was a well-known attorney and civic leader in Ardmore, A Phi Beta Kappa, Order of the Coif, 32nd degree Mason, and Fellow of the American Bar Foundation. Mr. Gray was listed in Who's Who in America. He served the Bar Association on all levels, as Carter County President, State President from 1963-65, as a member of many American Bar Association committees, and President of the Council of National Conference of Bar Presidents.

Mrs. Gray is an accomplished pianist with an MA of Arts Degree from Radcliffe. Her life has been devoted to her family and her community, and she is much admired by both.

Together, Mr. and Mrs. Gray were leaders of their community, and loving parents who provided their children with a warm stimulating home rich with happy memories. This fund in the Community Foundation testifies to the love and appreciation felt by their daughter, Nancy, for her parents.

W. DOW GUMERSON MEMORIAL

This fund was begun by the Oklahoma Chapter AIA to honor the memory of W. Dow Gumerson and benefit his favorite project: the preservation of the Henry Overholser Mansion.

During his 42-year career as an architect, Dow Gumerson left a rich visual image to Oklahomans, including Texhoma State Lodge (Lake Texhoma), Weatherford Public Library, Nichols Hills Plaza (Oklahoma City), Oklahoma Turnpike Authority Offices (Oklahoma City), Math & Computer Science Building (OSU Stillwater), the US Courthouse and Federal Offices (Oklahoma City) and the Continental Plaza Office Building (Kansas City).

Mr. Gumerson's services to his profession and to his community were many, but the one for which he will be most fondly remembered in Oklahoma City was his chairmanship of the Oklahoma Chapter AIA Committee for the Preservation of the Henry Overholser Mansion, a work of architectural art in its time. The Chapter purchased this exquisite Victorian mansion complete with original furnishings and operates it for the Oklahoma Historical Society as a public museum. This work, a fitting climax to his labor of love for his profession and his community, will be continued with the earnings from the W. Dow Gumerson Memorial Fund in the Community Foundation.

W. DOW GUMERSON

WANN LANGSTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY FUND

The family of Dr. Wann Langston has provided an endowment for the medical library of Baptist Medical Center to memorialize this outstanding teacher, leader, and physician. During Dr. Langston's 52-year medical career, he was Superintendent of the University Hospital, as well as Professor of Medicine at the University of Oklahoma School of Medicine. He entered private practice in 1932, but continued his teaching activities. In 1945 he was appointed temporary Dean of the Medical School, and was named Emeritus Professor of Medicine in 1948. He was a Fellow of the American College of Physicians and the American Society of Clinical Pathologists, and a diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine and the College of Chest Physicians, as well as Regent of the American College of Physicians.

Dr. Langston is best remembered as a teacher and lecturer. He spent many hours, both in the Outpatient Department and on the wards of the University Hospital in undergraduate teaching and enjoyed his associations with medical students. He continued private practice until his 85th birthday, at which time he officially retired. The Baptist Medical Library will honor his memory.

D.D. & NONA S. PAYNE FUND

Mrs. D.D. Payne initiated this fund benefitting the National Cowboy Hall of Fame. Her late husband, David D. Payne, began cowboying as a youth, and by the time he was 17 had begun to build what became a sizable cattle-ranching empire of his own.

Since Nona Payne made her husband a Founding Member of the National Cowboy Hall of Fame, her destiny and that of the Cowboy Hall have been inseparable. In 1970 ground was broken for the Payne-Kirkpatrick Memorial Building housing the Fraser treasures, and the statue of Buffalo Bill that beckons travelers on Hwy 66 was made possible partially by Mrs. Payne. This fund in the Community Foundation will insure that the Payne family's interest in the National Cowboy Hall of Fame will endure.

O.K. DETRICK FOUNDATION FUND

Otis K. Detrick was born in Clay City, Indiana, in 1883 and died in 1965 in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He came as a young man from Indianapolis, Indiana, to Okmulgee, Oklahoma, in the early days of the oil industry, lived there from 1917 to 1931, was an independent oil producer, and formed the Detrick Corporation and the Chief Drilling Company. He then moved to Tulsa where he lived the rest of his life.

In his will he set aside a group of oil properties to be administered by the O.K. Detrick Foundation. All income from the properties is used for charitable and educational purposes. Mr. Detrick's daughter, Dorothy Detrick Kendall, is the president, and the board is composed of Nina Detrick, his wife, and other family members.

This fund in the Community Foundation will be used for dance scholarships at Oklahoma City University.

WILLIAM ROWE AND GRETCHEN S. COOK FUND

Mrs. William Rowe Cook has established the William Rowe and Gretchen Cook Fund in the Oklahoma City Community Foundation, the earnings of which will benefit the Second Presbyterian Church Mission Project and Presbyterian Hospital. These funds memorialize her husband, the late insurance executive, City Councilman, and member of Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Cook served as Deacon, Elder, and Trustee as well as Church Treasurer in his years at Westminster. Mrs. Cook was one of the first two women to be elected to Elder in 1960, and was president of Women of Westminster. Mrs. Cook was a founding member of the Women's Auxiliary of Presbyterian Hospital.

THE ORA ASHWELL ESTATE	This fund represents the distribution of the residuary estate of Ora Ashwell; earnings will be spent as her will requests, "for charitable institutions duly organized for the care, maintenance and education of indigent children." Earnings from this fund will benefit St. Joseph's Orphanage, Pathways, and Speck Homes. Mrs. Ashwell came to the United States as a girl with the young American man she married. Her husband was killed in World War I. With a modest start of about $3,000, Mrs. Ashwell launched a financial business that proved successful. She sold it near the time World War II started, and was able to live comfortably until her death in 1966. The death of her heir has led to the establishment of this fund from her residuary estate.
ANONYMOUS	An anonymous fund was established in December, the principal to be distributed to the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce for special use at an appropriate time.
MR. & MRS. RICHARD H. CLEMENTS FUND	This fund was established by Mr. & Mrs. Clements in December of 1978, with the request that the annual earnings benefit the Oklahoma Art Center.
R. EMERY & MARY LEE SMISER FUND	This fund was established by Mr. & Mrs. Smiser in December of 1978, with the request that the earnings be distributed in the community wherever the Board of Trustees finds the need is greatest.
PAUL & LILLYANNE SMITH FUND	This fund was established by Mr. & Mrs. Paul Smith in March of 1978, designating the earnings for the Oklahoma Center for Science and Arts.
ROY P. & JUNE W. STEWART FUND	In October of 1978, Mr. & Mrs. Roy P. Stewart established this fund, requesting that the earnings benefit the Oklahoma City University Library and World Neighbors.
AGENCIES OFTEN BEGIN THEIR OWN INDIVIDUAL FUNDS IN THE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION. LIKE ALL OF THE INDIVIDUAL FUNDS, THEY ARE OPEN-ENDED AND CONTRIBUTIONS OF ALL SIZES ARE WELCOMED.
SPECK HOMES	Many donors have designated Speck Homes as the recipient of the earnings of their donations, and in January of 1979, the Board of Directors of Speck Homes placed $49,925 in the Community Foundation as well. Speck Homes will now receive the income from a total of $74,175 in designated funds.
RED LANDS COUNCIL OF GIRL SCOUTS FUND	The Board of Directors of the Red Lands Council of Girl Scouts began this fund in the Community Foundation in April of 1978, planning to see it grow over the years into an important source of dependable support.
JEWISH COMMUNITY COUNCIL OF OKLAHOMA CITY	The Morris & Libby Singer Fund was the first to designate earnings for the Oklahoma City Jewish Community Council. The Jewish Community Council itself then added to that designation by becoming a donor to the Community Foundation. Combined with other designated funds for them, the Jewish Community Council will receive earnings on $110,332.55, providing a dependable source of support for their work, enhancing the life of the Jewish community in Oklahoma City.
SUNBEAM FAMILY SERVICES	When Sunbeam Family Services received a grant from the residuary estate of Ora Ashwell in December, they used that money to begin their fund in the Community Foundation. Earnings will benefit the various services provided by Sunbeam, including counseling, foster care, adoptive services, and day care programs.

ABOUT CULTURE

The Community Foundation is aware that a thriving cultural life is a necessity for Oklahoma City at all levels: for the artists, for the individual citizens, for the growth of the business community, and for an atmosphere of wellbeing and goodwill to prevail. For this reason, the Foundation supports many cultural activities, and is ready to help when special needs arise.

In 1978, the Oklahoma Theater Center had need of emergency funds and the Community Foundation was able to help with a grant from the General Endowment of $6500.

By request of the donors, a fund of $3,656,603 was held in the Community Foundation for the Oklahoma Center for Science and Arts until such time as that new venture received its tax-exempt status. This status was conferred in 1978, and the funds were transferred to them, including $53,074 in earnings.

Undesignated funds in the Arts were expended largely on the Oklahoma Theater Center this year, but grants were made as well to the Oklahoma Summer Arts Institute and the Oklahoma Youth Orchestra, two organizations doing excellent work providing opportunities for Oklahoma's young talent.

WHO CARES
HEALTH

Grants to health-related agencies in Oklahoma City totalled $71,920 in 1979, including a grant from principal to the Dean A. McGee Eye Institute as specified by the donor.

Deaconess Hospital received additional funds from nondesignated monies to buy a microwave oven. The Luther T. Dulaney Fund, designated for health-related fields, this year went to St. Anthony Hospital, respecting Mr. Dulaney's association with that institution during his lifetime.

The Dr. Wann Langston Memorial Library was dedicated at Baptist Medical Center, and the first earnings from the Wann Langston Memorial Fund in the Foundation went to support its needs.

Donors to the Community Foundation have indicated their concern about health delivery to Oklahoma Cityans by designating hospitals, health-related agencies, and areas of interest in medical research to receive the earnings from their funds. Most of these distributions were supplemented by earnings from the General Endowment. A grant from the General Endowment was made to Neighborhood Services for their Community Clinic, which provides medical and dental services to people who have trouble finding these services in the community.

EDUCATION

The Oklahoma City Community Foundation made grants at all levels of education in 1978, from preschool programs to graduate institutions. Included in these totals are scholarship monies from the E.K. Gaylord Scholarship Fund of $7,000 each to Oklahoma City University and Oklahoma Christian College. This fund generated enough income in 1978 to allow us to add a medical school scholarship for the first time. The Distribution Committee knew this had been a special interest of Mr. Gaylord's, and felt that such a scholarship would be in the spirit of his philanthropic gifts during his lifetime. Included in the Oklahoma University Health Sciences Center grant is a stipend designated by the Pilot Club for a student in the School of Health.

The Oklahoma City Public Schools began receiving the earnings from their Foundation fund in 1978. The initiators of this fund hope that it will grow to be an important source of support for the nonbudgetary needs of the public schools of Oklahoma City.

ABOUT
SERVICES

Donors to the Oklahoma City Community Foundation share a wide variety of human concerns in their city. Of special interest are the three grants made from the F.M. Knight Trust in 1978 to agencies working with handicapped children. Invitations to submit proposals were sent to appropriate agencies in Oklahoma City, and the grants were then made from the submitted proposals. Receiving awards were the Educational Services at Children's Memorial Hospital for cultural enrichment activities of its resident students, Parent-Child Development Center for work with troubled children and their families, and the Oklahoma Foundation for the Disabled, for sports activities for children participating in their program.

GIFTS TO THE FOUNDATION

The Oklahoma City Community Foundation is a public charity, offering the donor maximum tax advantages.

Because we are a Foundation for the entire community, gifts of all sizes are welcomed. Smaller gifts are often donated IN MEMORY of individuals or IN HONOR of someone. Such gifts are added to the General Fund unless specified. Appropriate notification is sent to the family of the honored person.

TO ESTABLISH A NAMED FUND IN THE FOUNDATION, a minimum gift of $1,000 is required. Upon such a donation, the donor may choose one of several options for the use of the fund.

Undesignated Funds, whose uses are left entirely to the judgment of the current trustees, are our most useful assets for meeting the immediate needs of the Oklahoma City area. Many worthwhile requests for funding come to the Community Foundation each year, requests that intend to solve the problems or enhance the life of our community. Undesignated gifts provide the most flexible funds to be used to meet these new and pressing needs.

Designated Funds ensure that the special charitable interest of the donor will continue to be responded to by the Trustees so long as such use appears appropriate. These funds, then, are the result of gifts or bequests for a specific field of interest or designated institution.

WAYS OF GIVING TO THE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

OUTRIGHT BEQUEST

Many donors have provided gifts to the Foundation by will. The following form is suggested:

"I give and bequeath to The Oklahoma City Community Foundation, Inc., (describe gift) for its uses and purposes as they are defined in the Oklahoma City Community Foundation's Articles of Incorporation as they exist on the date hereof, or as if may hereafter be from time to time amended."

TRUSTS

The Foundation has received gifts which pay a lifetime of sums to the donor's family or friends or to the donor himself. When the life tenant dies, the funds remaining are then distributed to the Foundation for use throughout the community.

Charitable remainder trusts, annuity trusts, and unitrusts are special types of gifts requiring the execution of a special trust agreement with other than the Community Foundation. The drafting of such an agreement with its rather complex tax problems should be referred to the donor's own attorney. The Foundation's staff will assist in any way possible.

GIFTS BY LIVING DONORS

Individuals, corporations and other groups making gifts to the Foundation may suggest disbursements of income or principal, and, if in keeping with the charitable purposes of the Foundation, the request will be reviewed and authorized by the Board of Trustees.

Gifts of this type to the Foundation should be addressed to The Oklahoma City Community Foundation, Inc., with instructions as to which of the six trustee banks should handle the funds. A gift establishing an Individual Fund requires only a simple covering letter.

LIFE INSURANCE

Gifts of life insurance policies may be made by naming the Oklahoma City Community Foundation as beneficiary. If irrevocable, the premiums thereafter paid by the donor are deductible for income tax purposes. The proceeds after the death of the insured are not taxable as part of the donor's estate.

TRANSFER OF PRIVATE FOUNDATION

Since passage of the Tax Reform Act of 1969, the Trustees of many private foundations have given consideration to the advantages of transferring assets to community foundations.

Community foundations offer donors the maximum tax advantages available for charitable donations, which generally exceed the income credits to private foundations.

1. No excise tax: Unlike private foundations, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation is not required to pay the 2 percent excise tax on its net investment income.
2. Community foundations which qualify as being publicly supported do not have to satisfy a mandatory payout requirement.
3. Simplified reporting: Private foundations must annually file extensive financial reports and tax returns with the Internal Revenue Service. A community foundation relieves the private foundation of this burden.

The staff and leadership of the Oklahoma City Community Foundation is available to advise you regarding participation in the Foundation's work. Call the Foundation office at 235-5621 or write Oklahoma City Community Foundation, 1300 North Broadway, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73103.

INFORMATION FOR GRANT SEEKERS

The Oklahoma City Community Foundation provides financial assistance to agencies and organizations working for the betterment of life in the Greater Oklahoma City area. If your organization is tax-exempt, operating for such a betterment and is in need of such assistance, it may be eligible for a grant.

Before contacting us, you should know some important facts regarding our distribution policy. First, a donor to the Community Foundation may request that a particular agency receive the benefits from the donation, and if the Distribution Committee believes that the requested beneficiary is serving the needs of Oklahoma City, that request will be honored.

A substantial portion of the earnings from our trust funds is so designated, leaving a smaller portion available for distribution to other qualified grant seekers.

We have had no difficulty finding worthwhile organizations in this community to support, far more seek our help than we are able to aid. We, as a trustee of public funds, must use our best judgement in evaluating community needs, priorities, and the ability of the group to carry out the proposal. You, then, must remember that you are competing for funding with other worthwhile agencies whose work also serves the interest of Oklahoma City.

POLICY GUIDELINES:

The Foundation generally limits its grants to organizations in the Oklahoma City area, except as may be specially requested by particular funds. From the General Fund, the Foundation prefers grants of the following types:

1. Seed money for start-up costs of new, innovative programs.
2. Grants which generate additional funding.
3. One-time grants for programs which do not require refunding.
4. Grants for programs which provide direct human services.
5. Grants for capital and equipment needs.

Among the purposes for which the Distribution Committee does not ordinarily recommend grants from Discretionary Funds are:

1. Annual campaigns, local or national.
2. Endowments.
3. Sectarian religious purposes.
4. Loans or assistance to individuals.
5. Scholarships, fellowships, and travel grants to individuals.
6. Research grants of a highly technical or specialized nature.
7. Operating or maintenance grants.

APPLYING FOR A GRANT:

If you believe your organization is eligible for assistance from the Oklahoma City Community Foundation, the application procedure is relatively simple.

If you have any questions regarding your group's eligibility or the appropriateness of the request, call the Foundation staff at 235-5621 and discuss what you have in mind. If our Foundation is not the place to seek funds for your project, we may be able to help you find other sources of support.

All proposals should be written, accompanied by evidence of your tax-exempt status. Where applicable, the initial grant request should include:

1. Rationale: A clear statement of the problem, including demonstration of need.
2. Objectives: A precise statement of how you plan to meet the problem.
3. Methodology: a description of how the activity is to be carried out.
4. Target population: Who will be served and how many will be served.
5. Evaluation: Your procedure for evaluating or measuring the success or failure of your project.
6. Finances: An annual as well as a project budget. Evidence as well of how the project will be funded beyond the term of the proposed grant. Will this grant generate additional funding?
7. Competence: Evidence of qualified personnel to carry out the proposed activity.

Applications should be received in the Foundation office no later than the 15th of November. Applicants will be notified as soon as feasible after the final decision of the Distribution Committee.

THE FOUNDATION CENTER LIBRARY

The Foundation Library is housed in the Community Foundation offices, containing information on foundations in Oklahoma and across the United States. Grant seekers may use the library free of charge for their research into funding sources. This is a service of the Community Foundation to the agencies and organizations of Oklahoma City. Call the Foundation Office for an appointment.

The Board of Trustees
Oklahoma City Community Foundation, Inc.

We have examined the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balance resulting from cash transactions of Oklahoma City Community Foundation, Inc. at January 31, 1979, and 1978, and the related statement of changes in fund balance for the years then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note 1, the Foundation's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principals.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the assets, liabilities and fund balances arising from cash transactions of Oklahoma City Community Foundation, Inc. at January 31, 1979, and 1978, and its changes in fund balances for the years then ended, and on the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting as described in Note 1, which basis has been applied in a consistent manner.
