Community Foundation Scholars &
Foundation of Promise Scholars

OKLAHOMA CITY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Helping you help the community

Going Up!

Going Up! is an apt theme for the Oklahoma City Community Foundation's New Opportunities Scholarship Initiative. Through the initiative, we encourage students to go beyond their high school education and obtain skills that will enrich not only their lives but the communities in which they live.

The Oklahoma City Community Foundation's Board of Trustees launched the initiative in 1998 with the belief that to ensure our community remains a quality place to live and work, then post high school education must become a viable option for any high school student in Oklahoma County who is eligible and has the desire. Since its inception nine years ago, the initiative has awarded $1.5 million in scholarships to students in central Oklahoma.

The Trustees are pleased to present this commemorative publication in recognition of the 2006 Foundation of Promise Scholars and the 2006 Community Foundation Scholars who are indeed "going up" the educational ladder.

The Oklahoma City Community Foundation was founded in 1969 by philanthropist John E. Kirkpatrick and fellow business leaders in the community. We work with people and organizations to create funds that will benefit their community both now and in the future. Through the generosity of thousands of donors over the past 37 years, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation has grown to be one of the region's most trusted and credible organizations and a leader in identifying emerging issues and developing programs to meet those issues.

The Oklahoma City Community Foundation manages nearly 1,000 funds with assets in excess of $490 million. These funds represent a wide variety of donor interests from education and scholarships to endowments for charitable organizations to the beautification of public lands and parks. In 2005, $16.8 million flowed back into the community through grants and distributions.

The Oklahoma City Community Foundation is governed by a 15-member Board of Trustees comprised of business and civic leaders. Trustees are selected to serve due to their proven integrity, community knowledge and their ability to make fair judgments on complex issues.

New Opportunities Scholarship Initiative

In addition to offering scholarship opportunities through five distinct programs, the New Opportunities Scholarship Initiative also serves as a valuable resource for high school guidance counselors in central Oklahoma. Since 1998, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation Board of Trustees has committed more than $3 million to the five scholarship programs and the Oklahoma County Guidance Counselor Network. Each program and the network are designed to meet very specific needs and opportunities. To date, the New Opportunities Scholarship Initiative has awarded nearly $1.5 million in scholarship funds to students in central Oklahoma.

The initiative is comprised of the following programs: The Community Foundation Scholars, the Foundation of Promise Scholars, Oklahoma Youth With Promise Scholars, the Non-Traditional Student Scholars and the Nurse Education Program.

Community Foundation Scholars

The Community Foundation Scholars program rewards good students who are also good citizens. Recipients are students who might not otherwise qualify for awards based solely on academic standards. The $1,200 per student scholarship is a means by which the Oklahoma City Community Foundation can encourage these students to be successful in their post high school educational endeavors. In 2006, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation is providing 86 Community Foundation Scholars awards.

Foundation of Promise Scholars

The Foundation of Promise Scholars program provides scholarships for first-generation college students; those who will be the first in their family to attend college. To be eligible for the award, a first-generation student must apply as a junior and agree to complete specific activities that help prepare them for college admission. Upon successful completion of the activities, the student is eligible for a $1,200 scholarship to any accredited post-secondary educational institution. In 2006, 70 students representing high schools in central Oklahoma are receiving Foundation of Promise Scholars awards.

Youth With Promise Scholars

The Oklahoma City Community Foundation works with both public and private agencies to award scholarships to students who graduated from high school while in Oklahoma's foster care system. Students also receive support from volunteer mentors in addition to scholarship funds. Most recently, 30 students were awarded scholarships through this program.

Non-Traditional Scholars

The goal of the Non-Traditional Scholar program is to assist adults re-entering the educational system. Working through several agencies, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation identifies adults who have completed one educational program and possess both the ability and desire to advance to another program. The sponsoring agency identifies the students and agrees to provide mentoring as they participate in the new educational program.

Nurse Education Program

In 2003, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation Board of Trustees began its efforts to address the qualified staffing challenges facing the metropolitan area's nonprofit hospitals. The program offers scholarships to nurses employed at any of the five participating hospitals who are seeking additional certification and degrees in nursing. Most recently, the program awarded nearly $30,000 in scholarships to 26 nurses.

The Oklahoma County Guidance Counselor Network

An important ingredient in the Oklahoma City Community Foundation's New Opportunities Scholarship Initiative is the involvement of the guidance counselors at each of the 40 high schools in Oklahoma County, Piedmont, Moore, Westmoore, Yukon and Mustang. For many students, the guidance counselor may be the only source of information on college admission requirements and financial aid resources.

Realizing the important role the counselors serve, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation formed the Oklahoma County Guidance Counselor Network. For many of these counselors the information shared at the Network's two free workshops per year is the only opportunity they may have to learn about current college admission issues and financial aid opportunities. In addition, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation coordinates campus visits for counselors to universities, colleges and technology centers, both public and private. As an added incentive, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation provides at least one Community Foundation Scholars award to each high school with a participating guidance counselor.

The Oklahoma City Community Foundation Scholarship Team

Anna-Faye Rose, scholarship administrator, oversees the New Opportunities Scholarship Initiative and has been with the Oklahoma City Community Foundation since 1995. She is assisted by Linda Keefe, a retired high school counselor. Both Anna-Faye and Linda provide hands-on experience in dealing with youth, college admissions and scholarship administration. In addition, fellow staff members provide fund management services, promotion and development of funds. The Oklahoma City Community Foundation Scholarship Committee is comprised of a diverse group of key community and business leaders who volunteer their time and expertise to provide valuable insight and guidance to the New Opportunities Scholarship Initiative.

New Opportunities Scholarship Initiative: Major Donors

The success of the New Opportunities Scholarship Initiative would not be possible without the support of the many donors who have provided funds to be used for scholarships and varied educational programs. Below are highlights of a number of the major donors whose gifts provide substantial support for the Initiative.

Leveta Land

Central High School Alumni Association

The Central High School Alumni Association (CHSAA) continues with a tradition of education for the community by providing scholarships for students who graduate from central Oklahoma high schools. Founded in 1892, Central High School was the first high school in Oklahoma City, providing educational services for Oklahoma City area students until its closure in 1968. According to Robert Ross, class of 1946, the alumni want to continue to honor the tradition of quality education by helping deserving students continue their education after high school.

In addition to the Community Foundation scholars, CHSAA funds at least one vocational technical scholarship and the Leveta Land Scholarship for a student in secretarial science. CHSAA is funding six Community Foundation Scholar awards in 2006.

Irene P. and Samuel E. Frierson Educational Trust

Dr. and Mrs. Frierson were long-term residents of Oklahoma City. They died in the early 1960s. Dr. Frierson was a native of Mississippi and a graduate of Tulane University. He served as an army surgeon in France during World War I and practiced medicine in Oklahoma City for more than 40 years. The Friersons had no surviving children and created the Frierson Educational Trust to provide scholarships for students that attend college in Oklahoma. The Oklahoma City Community Foundation is honored to have the Frierson Educational Trust, currently administered by the Bank of Oklahoma Trust Department, as a sponsor of the Community Foundation Scholars awards.

Winona S. Presley Fund

The Winona S. Presley Fund was established in 1999 and supports a variety of educational programs.

Mrs. Presley was a resident of Britton, Oklahoma where she was a longtime supporter of education. In addition to her fund at the Oklahoma City Community Foundation, Mrs. Presley established endowments at the Oklahoma 4-H Foundation, the University of Central Oklahoma and Oklahoma City University. Within the New Opportunities Scholarship Initiative, the Presley Fund supports the activities of the Oklahoma County Guidance Network, enhancing the knowledge and expertise of Oklahoma County's guidance counselors.

William M. and Janet S. Johnson Scholarship Fund

The William M. and Janet S. Johnson Scholarship Fund, which was established through bequests, provides opportunities for graduates of Minco High School who show promise of benefiting from higher education. In addition, the fund also supports the Initiative's Nurse Education Program.

Willie Elizabeth Shipley Fund and the E.K. Gaylor Fund

Through the generosity of donors Willie Elizabeth Shipley and E.K. Gaylor, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation is able to provide funding for Community Foundation and Foundation of Promise Scholars.

Miss Shipley worked as the Secretary of the Oklahoma State Senate for 48 years and documented some of the most colorful history of a developing state. In 1903, Mr. Gaylor moved from Colorado to Oklahoma Territory and established the Oklahoma Publishing Company which publishes The Oklahoman.

Ruth Mershon

Ruth Mershon Trust

Ruth Mershon graduated from the University of Oklahoma Medical School in 1949 and practiced anesthesiology until her retirement in 1996. Through a bequest of the remaining assets of her retirement accounts, Dr. Mershon established a fund at the Oklahoma City Community Foundation that supports her charitable interests including several scholarships through the New Opportunities Scholarship Initiative.

Additional Major Donors

The Oklahoma City Community Foundation is pleased to acknowledge the support of the following donors who have made gifts in support of one or more of the New Opportunities Scholarship Initiative programs.

Honoring Past Trustees

To illustrate appreciation for their service to the Oklahoma City Community Foundation, 23 Community Foundation Scholar awards were named in 2006 in honor of past Trustees who served nine or more years on the board. Honored are:

John E. Kirkpatrick	Jean I. Everest
Clayton Rich	Frank McPherson
Ray T. Anthony	Raymond Hefner, Jr.
Dan Hogan, III	George Records
Dean A. McGee	Morrison G. Tucker
Jack Abernathy	Richard L. Sias

James R. Tolbert, III	Linda Lambert
J. Edward Barth	Anne Morgan
Nancy Payne Ellis	William O. Johnstone
F.M. Petree	Jeanette Gamba
Richard Harrison

Additional Scholarship Funds at the Oklahoma City Community Foundation

In addition to the New Opportunities Scholarship Initiative, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation also administers nearly 90 additional scholarship funds for a wide variety of groups and organizations, making the Oklahoma City Community Foundation the state's largest independent administrator of scholarship programs.

In 2006, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation will administer scholarships and awards to more than 500 students.

Scholarship funds offer a great opportunity to invest in the future. Donors come to the Oklahoma City Community Foundation to establish scholarship funds for a variety of reasons. Many want to honor the memory or accomplishments of a loved one while others want to promote a particular profession or occupation and still others seek to support a specific group of students.

The Oklahoma City Community Foundation makes it easy for these donors by providing all of the administrative assistance to manage the funds and paying the scholarship award to the appropriate institution. The donors can choose to be as involved in the process as they wish. Above all else, donors can be assured that the scholarship fund will continue to be administered according to their intentions long after their death. If you are interested in establishing a scholarship fund, please visit www.occf.org for more information located in the Scholarship Center. You may also contact Anna-Faye Rose, scholarship administrator, at 405/235-5603 or a.rose@occf.org.

Guest Speaker Bio

John Allgood is the Executive Director of the Oklahoma RedHawks, a Triple-A professional baseball team in the Pacific Coast League. John was promoted to his current position during the winter of 2004-05 after serving in 2004 as the team's Assistant General Manager, Sales and Marketing. This is John's 11th season with the organization in various capacities, starting as Director of Public Relations in 1995.

In his first season as Executive Director, the RedHawks set the Oklahoma single-season baseball attendance record when 542,095 fans passed through the turnstiles for RedHawks games and some 750,000 visited AT&T Bricktown Ballpark for all events including Bedlam baseball, the Big XII Conference Tournament, concerts and snow tubing during the winter holiday season. For his efforts and the team's dramatic increases in attendance the past two seasons, John was named the Pacific Coast League's Executive of the Year for 2005.

A native of Altus, Okla., he holds a master's degree from the University of Oklahoma and is currently an adjunct instructor with the university's Price School of Business. He teaches a senior level Sport Management class, with subject matter involving the realities of managing a professional sports team.

In 2005, John was named a JC Penney Distinguished Visitors Series honoree, awarded to Oklahoma-connected executives in business, government, or academia and recognized as leaders in helping to form society's conventional wisdom. He's on the Board of Directors for the Bricktown Association and the Limbs for Life Foundation and was named to the exclusive OKC Business Forty under 40 for 2005.

Guest Speaker Bio

Dr. Mary Ann Bauman received her medical degree from Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan in 1978. For nine years, she served in a variety of teaching and administrative positions on medical school faculties including Wayne State University, the University of South Dakota and the University of Oklahoma. In 1991, she joined Integris Health as Medical Director of the Women's Center and is now the Medical Director for Women's Health and Community Relations. She is board certified in Internal Medicine and has an active primary care practice.

Dr. Bauman is a strong advocate for healthy living and speaks regularly to audiences about many of the health challenges that we face today. Topics include Women's Health Issues, Preventative Health, and the importance of the Mind-Body connection. She has pioneered a program called "On Your Own" for high school students, which focuses on health issues facing teens today.

The Red Lands Council of Girl Scouts, The Oklahoma Hospitality Club and The Journal Record have honored Dr. Bauman for her community involvement in patient education. Since 2001, Dr. Bauman has served on the New Opportunities Scholarship Committee at the Oklahoma City Community Foundation. She also serves on the Board of Directors of the Integris Baptist Foundation, BancFirst of Oklahoma City and the Heartland Affiliate of the American Heart Association. She is also on the Editorial Board of Medical Economics magazine.

She is featured daily on Oklahoma's KWTV, the CBS affiliate, and has been syndicated nationally. Previously, she was a regular on KFOR, the NBC affiliate in Oklahoma City, and KELO, the CBS affiliate in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Dr. Bauman is married and has three children.
