The Oklahoma City Community Foundation is helping the Oklahoma City Museum of Art celebrate its 10th anniversary at its downtown location by sponsoring free admission for everyone, March 16-18.

Believe it or not, it's been 10 years since the museum relocated to the Donald W. Reynolds Visual Arts Center at 415 Couch Dr. in downtown Oklahoma City. In addition to free admission, the museum will offer a variety of activities for visitors of all ages during the weekend of March 16-18. For details, visit www.okcmoa.com.
